THANK YOU

Thank you for your interest in the Exeter Historical Society of New Hampshire. The Society is the steward of Exeter's rich past. It is our mission to preserve Exeter's history and educate students, the community, and visitors of all ages through programming and outreach. Volunteering your time and talents is a powerful way to change the world and change your life. As a volunteer, you'll share your knowledge and enthusiasm with society visitors and provide an invaluable service to the community. Society board and members provide training for all new volunteers and ongoing learning opportunities throughout the year.
